something has gone seriously wrong with the american economy the american economy has experienced considerable growth in the last 30 years but virtually none of this growth has trickled down to the average american incomes have been flat since 1985 inequality has grown and social mobility has dropped dramatically equally troubling these policies have been devastating to both american productivity and our long term competitiveness many reasons for these failures have been proposed globalization union greed outsourcing but none of these explanations can address the harsh truth that many countries around the world are dramatically outperforming the u s in delivering broad middle class prosperity and this is despite the fact that these countries are more exposed than america to outsourcing and globalization and have much higher levels of union membership in what went wrong george r tyler a veteran of the world bank and the treasury department takes the reader through an objective and data rich examination of the american experience over the last 30 years he provides a fascinating comparison between the america and the experience of the family capitalism countries australia austria belgium denmark france germany the netherlands and sweden over the last 30 years they have outperformed the u s economy by the only metric that really matters delivering better lives for their citizens the policies adopted by the family capitalist countries aren't socialist or foreign they are the same policies that made the u s economy of the 1950s and 1960s the strongest in the world what went wrong describes exactly what went wrong with the american economy how countries around the world have avoided these problems and what we need to do to get back on the right track in several eu member states constitutional courts have reviewed european law on its compatibility with national constitutional law these judgments deal with issues of major importance such as eu democratic legitimacy the protection of fundamental rights and the status of national sovereignty within the eu yet should national courts decide such issues of key constitutional significance for the eu or is it more democratic to leave these matters to political institutions that represent europe s citizens and are politically accountable to them in judging european democracy nik de boer argues that the national courts review of european law can actually constrain democratic debate over the eu s constitutional underpinnings rather than opening up a space for discourse or addressing democratic problems with the eu s decision making process national courts risk taking sides in good faith political disagreements among elected legislators about constitutional questions relating to the eu thus distorting rather than protecting the democratic decision making process judging european democracy uniquely combines constitutional and political theory with an in depth case study of the german constitutional court the eu s most authoritative constitutional court based on an extensive analysis of parliamentary debates eu policy documents and interviews with politicians policymakers and constitutional court judges the case study shows how the german constitutional court has distorted political debate and democracy in the eu scholars practitioners and policymakers involved in political theory political science eu constitutional law and european integration will find this book compelling africa in global power play debates challenges and potential reforms is a compilation of insightful and analytical articles that were published in different issues of the journal african renaissance between 2004 and 2006 most of the articles are from established academics researchers development practitioners and policymakers as well as stakeholders in africa though the perspectives are as varied as the contributions the underlining themes are the current scramble for africa and the various development trajectories vis à vis those of other regions of the world contributors also address the continuous interactions and inevitable contradictions between africa and the rest of the world the various contributions seek answers to a number of fundamental questions around africa s position in the global political economy focusing on such areas as international economic relations political and economic reforms democratic transitions and consolidations human rights and security though contributions show that africa faces enormous challenges in the global political economy they also point to the current dynamism and optimism in many parts of the continent bhekinkosi moyo is currently based in dakar senegal where he conducts and manages research for trustafrica a grant making foundation focusing on regional integration peace and security as well as citizenship and identity his research interests include africa s political economy international political economy global governance social movements and democratisation in africa his recent publications include china in africa threat or an asset 2006 the zimbabwean community in south africa with elinor sisulu and nkosinathi tshuma and africa and the world 2004 2005 this book is a compelling study of the many imponderable dilemmas challenges and imperatives that shape the contours of africa s place in a mercurial and uncertain global order it brings together a range of authors who reflect on the many themes that animate the african condition in the context of the multiple centrifugal tendencies intense structural asymmetries and disempowering pathologies that characterise globalisation africa in global power play is an invitation to critically engage in this existential debate and is a sterling contribution to the subject dr garth le pere director institute for global dialogue south africa

we are better than this is a collection of essays and poetry addressing the australian government s asylum seeker policy the aims of the book are several to provide some of the information about the situation in detention camps that is being withheld by the government to correct some of the government s misrepresentations of the current situation to clarify some of the complex legal issues surrounding the right to seek asylum and to give some insight into the plight of those who are seeking asylum it is hoped that this book will better inform people about the government s policies to support those who are unsatisfied and seeking to change the situation as well as those who are uncertain and need more easily accessible and reliable information contributors are drawn from several areas of expertise and engagement with asylum seekers china is fast emerging as a powerful player on the world stage this book takes a closer look at the country s stance on a range of global issues arguing that its multipolar diplomacy offers a concrete strategy to constrain the us pursuit of unipolar primacy many people assume that china will follow an imperialistic strategy and therefore be in direct conflict with the american empire in a quest for world domination jenny clegg shows that china is in fact taking a multilateral approach offering real assistance to developing countries and helping to build the institutions required to run a multipolar world without glossing over china s own internal difficulties the book argues that its international consensus building strategy could lead to a more peaceful and equitable world this book offers a refreshing perspective on china that will be of great value to those interested in the big political questions of how to tackle war and imperialism globalisation and development as well as to undergraduate students of politics economics and international relations the eu engages in aspects of security sector reform ssr through eupol afghanistan the police mission launched in 2007 and through the european commission s contributions to justice reform in the country based on an analysis of past efforts at police reform by the eu and other european and international actors this occasional paper identifies a set of internal and external coordination challenges that hamper mission success internally institutional constraints have meant that the coordination of eu instruments has been difficult to achieve member states meanwhile have until recently focused primarily on bilateral contributions to police and justice reform in the case of germany and italy respectively or on their military contributions to the international security assistance force isaf externally the resource gap and differing philosophies underlying police reform on the part of the us the biggest contributor to police reform and the eu have meant that coordination has been lacking and existing coordination bodies unable to fulfil their tasks limited resources deployed in pursuit of police reform exacerbate these difficulties as inadequate commitments of political material and personnel resources all too often translate into a loss of political influence at the strategic level the paper therefore argues that only by improving coordination and by increasing resources and efforts at formulating and implementing joint strategies will the eu and its member states have a positive impact on ssr in afghanistan given the deteriorating conditions in the country the upcoming presidential elections and a renewed focus on afghanistan on the part of the us administration the eu and its member states would do well to step up their efforts and their commitment to reforming afghanistan s police and justice system
