when you become a baby once again and your wife becomes your mummy instead life changes dramatically for our protagonist he becomes more and more of a baby until such time as he needs a babysitter would you like to live as a proper baby and put your adult side away never to be seen again a wonderful story by colin milton from the book tales from the nursery vol 3

gender has become a commodity today's economy trades in symbols and narratives as much as in objects as such gender can be bought and sold produced as an object and demands constant work what makes the commodity object seem alien mysterious and even threatening marx tells us is that the worker's social relations his subjectivity are taken away from him and stamped into the object which then appears to have a life of its own disassociated and threatening gender commodity argues that gender is a social relation made into such an alienated object in today's situation of radical insecurity people are reaching out and identifying with objects including symbolic ones that promise quite falsely that they grant stability duration and fulfillment and gender has been made into one of those gender commodity is an interdisciplinary study that brings literary studies into dialogue with the surrounding mediascape around issues of gender culture and economy it also asks how the symbolic production of gender commodity at home informs an imagination of gender policy as it reaches out globally as it criticizes gender affirmative feminism for participating in the culture of the commodity gender commodity also looks to feminism to imagine gender otherwise
